*Note: The futures contracts include current month contract, next month contract and spread month contract.

(Spread month contract): Only for (Long position) sell current month contracts and buy next month contracts simultaneously.

(Short position) buy current month contracts and sell next month contracts simultaneously.
Spread month contract code is (HSI 03/09 – 04/09),

(Name of contract / Current month / Year – Next month / Year)

Quotation: The differences of price between the current month contract and next month contract.

For example: Market price at (HSI 03/09) 13100
(HSI 04/09) 13050
(HSI 03/09 – 04/09) -50

If you have bought Hang Seng Index Futures Contract on March, but now you want to settle March contract and roll to April contract, you can choose one of the following methods:

1. You may sell March contract and buy April contract from the market, OR
2. You may buy spread month contract (HSI 03/09 – 04/09), the price at -50. So this action will automatically sell March contract at 13100 and buy April contract at 13050.

On the other hand, if you have sold Hang Seng Index Futures Contract on March, but now you want to settle March contract and roll to April contract, you can choose one of the following methods:

1. You may buy March contract and sell April contract from the market, OR
2. You may sell spread month contract (HSI 03/09 – 04/09), the price at -50. So this action will automatically buy March contract at 13100 and sell April contract at 13050.

BUY SELL
2. Choose your “Order Type”.

Choose time validity in the “Order type” section, options available:

(a) Rest of Day Order

“Rest-of-Day” order is a limit order with specified price and quantity. If the order is not immediately matched, it will stay as a queued order until the market closes for the day.

(b) Fill and Kill Order

“Fill and Kill” orders can be matched with as much as contracts available in the market and the remaining will be cancelled.

(c) Fill or Kill Order

“Fill or Kill” orders have to match exactly with the specified quantity; otherwise the order will be cancelled.

(d) Auction Order

An auction order is an order that does not have a price limit assigned by the trader who places that order. An auction order is ready to be matched at the Calculated Opening Price (COP) during the Pre-market Opening Period. At the end of the Pre-market Opening Period all unmatched auction orders will be converted to either limits orders or inactive orders.
(e) Market Order
Market Order is an order that just applicable on the Spot month contract. It is an order that buy / sell a contract in the fifth best market price plus / minus 30 points to match the order. If the order is successfully to be matched, the best market price will be offered to you and shown on the trade status page. If the order is not matched, the order will then be cancelled automatically.
Note: If there is no fifth best market price in the market, the order matching will be moved on to the fourth best, plus or minus 30 points, so on and so on.
If that contract does not have five best market price in the market. Market Order is not validated.

(f) Stop Loss Order **
Stop Loss Orders are not executed until the market reaches a given price specified in the “Touch Price” field. When the touch price is reached, the order will be sent to HKATS with the specified order price. A “buy stop” order is placed above the current price; a “sell stop” order is placed below the market.

(g) Up Trigger Order **
You can choose either a limit order or a market price order.
An Up Trigger Limit Order is a pending order with a touch price and a specified price. The touch price must be higher than the market price. When the touch price is reached, an order with a specified price will be sent to HKATS.
An Up Trigger Market Order is a pending order with a touch price whereas the touch price must be higher than the market price. When the touch price is reached, an order with a market price will be sent to HKATS.

(h) Down Trigger Order
You can choose either a limit order or a market price order.
A Down Trigger Limit Order is a pending order with a touch price and a specified price. The touch price must be lower than the market price. When the touch price is reached, an order with a specified price will be sent to HKATS.
A Down Trigger Market Order is a pending order with a touch price whereas the touch price must be lower than the market price. When the touch price is reached, an order with a market price will be sent to HKATS.
Note: If the touch price of the order reach the afternoon session opening price before the afternoon market open, the order will then be sent to HKATS at 2:30p.m. sharp.
3. Enter your trading password, and click “BUY” / “SELL” to submit your order.

Note: If you do not want to enter trading password every time when you place an order, you may disable it in Options.

4. Press “OK”, confirm the order sent to HKATS system.

Remarks: Order Size Risk Management

If the order size exceeds 15 contracts at once, a warning message <Your order size exceeds our lot limit. Please try again> will pop out and the order will be rejected. You may input your order separately.
Order Price Risk Management

If the difference between the order price and the last trading price exceeds 3%, a warning message <Your order price exceed our price limit and your quantity exceeds our lot limit, are you sure you want to proceed?>. Press OK to continue and the order will be sent to the market.

Index options order price limit

1. Price limits will be prescribed to all Index Options. Order(s) will not be placed if the order(s) exceeds (order price upper limit / order price lower limit), calculation as follows:

   Index Options order price limit = (Bid + Ask) \( \div \) 2 \( \pm \) 120 points

Example: Bid for 15200 call option is 440 points, Ask is 500 points

   Order price upper limit = (440 + 500) \( \div \) 2 + 120 points
   = 590 points
   Order price lower limit = (440 + 500) \( \div \) 2 - 120 points
   = 350 points

2. *All Index options orders will not be placed if there are no Bid AND Ask.

3. *All Index options orders will not be placed if there are no Bid OR Ask.
Trade Status / Amend Order

1. Click in “Trade Status” to view your trade status.

2. Double click on the order to amend the order. Only orders in “Queue” or “Pend” status can be amended.
3. You may either Delete or Modify the order.

4. If you want to Delete the order, just click on “Confirm Delete” to delete the order.
5. If you want to Modify the order, modify the Price and/or the Quantity, then click on “Confirm Modify” to proceed.

Note: If you have to amend your order, you should pay attention on the followings:

1. If you just diminish the quantity of your original order, your order will not need to be queued again.
2. If you increase the quantity or amend the price of your original order, your order will then need to be queued again.
Portfolio

1. Click on “Portfolio” to view your portfolio.

2. Double click on the contract to view the details.
3. Double click again to hide the details.
